

A web-based Remote Doctor-Patient Consultation Application

An application to facilitate patients to register, schedule a remote consultation with doctor, join the call over video and get the prescription over email

Scope

- Complete design, development, testing and deployment of solution in customer environment
- Complete UI and portal development (patient, clinician and admin portals)
- Integration with third party EHR systems
- Support for adhoc and scheduled video calls

Features

- Multi party video conferencing – ability to call out to interpreter on need basis
- White labelling support
- Quick call – emergency services
- Wellness & biometrics integration
- Support for payment gateway
- Android application for patients and doctors

