

Brochure development & promotional compliance for the European countries

More than 50% cost efficiency for scientific content generation compared to local agency

Scope

- Translation of brochures of a cardiovascular specific balloon-based catheter in multiple European regional languages
- Scientific skilled resources with the relevant background and competencies to ensure high quality of deliverables
- European promotional compliance requirement support as a value add for the project
- Standardization template created for brochures and other digital content for the in-scope product

